REVOLT SPREADS IN SAN DOMINGO

Five Generals Capture Four Towns---The Government Acts, but Troops Desert and the Revolutionary Army Is Growing.

CAPE HAYTIEH, Hayti, Aug. 7. — News has been received here from Santo Domingo that General Pablo Reyes, Roman Pacheco, Elena Navarro, Jose Polo and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in favor of Don Juan Isidoro Jimenez, and now occupy the plains of

They Must Apologize.
Washington, Aug. 7.—The gunboat Machias today reported she had sailed from Santo Domingo City to San Pedro de Macoris, a point on the coast of Santo Domingo about forty miles distant from the city.

More than half the troops are said to have gone over to the camp of General Pacheco, who is reported to have over 800 men, well armed, under his command.

General Guellito, Governor of Monte Christi, is thus placed in a dangerous position, and is unable to attack the revolutionists. It is added that he will be obliged to Trying to Keep Order.—Puerto Plata, San Domingo, Aug. 7.—Minister of Finance Señor Alvarez and Senator Cordero, with 100 men, went to Monte Cristi yesterday, where they united with 700 men who had been assembled in behalf of the Government. The latter are well armed and are expected to act intelligently and promptly in any emergency. It is probable that Señor Cordero would have accompanied the Machias were it not for the unsettled condition of affairs here. Minister Cordero has been given authority to select a man to whom he will give his assistance in case a man-of-war is needed, a Port au Prince, and Captain Cordero is holding himself in readiness for such call.

This Government has not yet been informed the Hayti has apologized for the

It is claimed the governor of Monte Cristi has 3,000 men under arms for the preservation of the peace, but the situation is not so simple.

The United States gunboat Machias has left the port of Santo Domingo for Punta Macoris, but the cruiser New Orleans still remains in the harbor.

Many Arrests Made.

Port au Prince, Haiti, Aug. 7.—No news from the United States consul, Mr. H. M. Bassett, who in 1915, was reprimanded by Secretary Fish for alleged leniency.

Haiti will be required to make an official statement as to all if the situation there does not speedily improve.

It is reported that the United States will avail himself of his authority and order the New Grens to Port au Prince.

Havane's Isidro Jimenez, who was interviewed to-day, said he was lately receipt of about twenty minigo, and in Haiti the political situation has improved. All persons thought capable of taking part in a revolutionary movement have been arrested, or have sought refuge in the consulates.

The Government is treating the prisoners with clemency, owing to the intervention of the Cuban, Cuban Minister, Mr. William

The financial situation here, however, is still critical. Pourparlers on the subject have been exchanged between the Government and Minister Powell, who has assured the Ministers that a loan, with suitable guarantees, could certainly be floated in the United States. He was assured he would go. He remarked that he counted on a majority of 50-40, and talked in a very confident manner, expressing himself as hopeful of complete success. He asserted that he was receiving offers of assistance from many Cubans.
